Customer Assistance Programs

Local and state organizations in Unitol's service areas offer highly supportive programs for qualified customers to provide financial assistance, increase energy efficiency and manage energy costs. We work closely with these organizations to ensure that your needs are met throughout the year.

Need Help and Don't Know Where To Turn? Dial 2-1-1

It's an easy-to-remember three-digit telephone number that serves as a resource for finding government benefits and services, nonprofit organizations, support groups, volunteer opportunities, donation programs and other local resources. 211 is an initiative led by your local United Way.

2-1-1 is for everyone. It's free. It's confidential. It is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, and is an easy way to find or give help in your community. Call 211 or visit www.mass211.org to start getting help today!

For additional information, please visit:

or: www.unitil.com/gasassist for gas customers.
You can also contact our customer service center.

Listed below are a variety of informational resources for you:

Making Opportunity Count (MOC)

www.mocinc.org
601 River Street, Fitchburg, MA.....978-345-7040

Administers the fuel assistance program (LIHEAP) during the heating season to qualifying households that meet federal income guidelines. A customer who is eligible for fuel assistance also qualifies for Unitol's discount rate, and may be eligible to participate in the arrears management program.

Also, MOC offers income-qualified conservation and education programs, delivering a variety of services including child care, education, workforce development, nutrition, health, community services, asset development, energy conservation and housing & homelessness services. MOC carries out those services through three main divisions: Child Care & Head Start; Nutrition & Wellness and Housing & Community Services.

Department of Transitional Assistance

www.mass.gov/dta
49 Nursery Lane #101, Fitchburg, MA.....978-665-8700

- Administers Food Stamp Program, Transitional Aid to Families with Dependent Children (TAFDC), Emergency Aid to Elderly, Disabled and Children (EAEDC) and emergency assistance to qualifying households.
- Transitional Assistance Opt-Out - Massachusetts utilities are required to cross reference their database of residential customers with a list of Transitional Assistance recipients to ensure that all eligible customers receive a discounted energy rate if they qualify.

If you receive benefits from the Department of Transitional Assistance (DTA) and are the customer of record, you will be automatically enrolled in this program. If you do not wish to be included in the automatic matching process, contact Unitol's customer service center to opt out.

United Way of North Central Massachusetts
